

THE SEA

The sea is blue and dark and light
The sea is green and black and white
The sea is pink and golden bright
The sea is smile, caress, delight
The sea is joy and thrill and fright
The sea is hug and kiss or bite
The sea is wild with no contrite
The sea is space and life and fight
The sea is home and walk and flight
The sea is field, abyss and height
The sea is water, foam and might
The sea is tide each day and night
